This week, we have been learning to add -ed and -er to words ending in e.

Adding -ed to words ending in e

When we change words ending in e to the past tense, we take away the e and add -ed.

scored

joked

When you add -ed to a word that ends in e, the -ed suffix makes the /d/ or /t/ sound.

Adding -er to words ending in e

When adding -er to words ending in e, we take away the e and add -er.

baker

Common Exception Words

We have been learning to spell the common exception words whole and listen.

Grammar

When we add the suffix -ed to verbs, it changes them to the past tense, e.g.

Sam and Kit hiked up the hill.

The past tense is when we talk about something which has already happened.
